FIVE ATTACKS IN TYROL FAIL, SAY ITALIANS

Austrians, However, Report Capture of Frontier Ridge of Magguso.

TO CARRY WAR INTO ITALY, TEUTON PLAN

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. tack against the Italian lines in the tions. long awaited general Austrian offensive replying. with the object of carrying the war into northern Italy. A despatch received to-night from the ome correspondent of THE SUN says: "The objective of the Austrian offensive is now fully revealed. It is an attempt at an invasion between the Astico and the Brenta rivers. The Italians have foreseen such an attempt and are prepared to resist it.

The Austrian losses already are very avy. It is not considered likely that tans will long remain on the de-

The Austrian attacks in the Lagarina valley (the lower Adige) were repeated esterday, again with heavy preliminary combardment. In all five attacks were selvered and, according to the Italian statement, were repulsed, while the Austrans claim further gains in this dis-activity yesterday extended from the Monte Adamello zone to the Do-berdo plateau, bordering on the Adriatic. first named section the Italians that the Austrians abandoned a quantity of war material in the Topete and Fargodia passes, in the northcastern sector of this zone. In the Ledro Valley, to the west of Lake Garda, Austrian attacks were repulsed, and in contrian attacks were repulsed. The section of these operations, a surprise attack, recovered a trench north of Hill

In the Adamello zone we captured numerous arms, munitions and war material abandoned by the enemy in the Topete and Fargorida passes. On May 17 our Alpine troops ex-tended their occupation of the Far-gorida crest to the Matterot zone and source of the Sarca di Genova. In the Ledro Valley after an intense daybreak this morning attacked our positions on the slopes of Monte Pari and was repulsed with heavy losses. In the Lagarino Valley yesterday e enemy renewed his bombardment

f our Zugna Torta positions with umerous powerful batteries, immediately attacking five times with infan-The attacks were repulsed with the zone between the Terragnolo Valley and the upper Astico the enemy artillery fire continues without inter-ruption against our principal line of

We successfully repulsed the usual diversive attacks in the San Pel-legrino Valley, the Marmolata zone, the Fedaia pass, the upper Avisio and Along the Isonzo there was moder-one zone by a brilliant counter attack we recaptured a section of trench oc-The only Austrian offensive mentioned the lower Tyrol, where the Aus-announce the capture of the o, the occupation of Costabella repulse of Italian counter at-th of Moscheri, as well as the nore prisoners and guns or Zugna Torta.

The Italians appear, from the Aus-an statement, to have taken the offen-e in the zone of the Col di Lana, that the Austrian purpose eventually is to take up a general offensive extending to the Adriatic, including among its objects the invasion of northern Italy and the clearing of the Italians from the longo region, where they have menaced Goritz for many months.

Several batteries of heavy Austrian artillery which had been used by the fiermans have been returned to the Austrians and are now installed near Gorits and Monfalcone, on the Doberdo plateau, according to the Swiss advices, and the Archduke Frederick, commanding the Archduke Frederick, commanding the Austrian forces on the Italian front, has cetablished his headquarters at Monfalcone, Austrian troops are being rushed lirough Innsbruck for the strengthening of the attacking forces in the Trentino.

Says the Eretria Struck Mine.

PARIS, May 18.—Kenneth S. Patton, American Consul at La Rochelle, reports that the British freight steamship Eretthat the British freight steamship

FRENCH GAIN ON MEUSE: TWO GERMAN DRIVES FAIL

Paris Reports Heavy Losses to Kaiser's Troops in Attacks in Avocourt Region—French Recover Trench Near Hill 287.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
PARIS, May 18.—Another attempt was nade by the Germans this afternoon to break through the French line on the Bois d'Avocourt-Hill 304 front, on the west bank of the Meuse.

The French trenches were subjected to the usual violent preparatory bombardment, but the moment the attack was launched the French fire curtain was thrown out and the mitrailleuses were brought into action, checking the Germans, apparently with heavy losses LONDON, May 18 .- The Austrian at- before they had reached the French post-

The German artillery is continuing its Trentino, begun on last Monday, is re-garded in Rome and in the Swiss cities hear the front as the beginning of the to be launched. The French guns are Germans Suffer Heavily.

The official communiqué issued by the French War Office to-night follows: North of the Aisne we dispersed an nemy detachment which attempted approach our trenches south of

On the left bank of the Meuse the enemy, after a violent bombardment, launched a strong attack at 5 o'clock this afternoon against our positions in the Bois d'Avocourt and on Hill 204. Our barrage fire and our mitrailleuse fire stopped the enemy, who appeared to have suffered heavy losses. The artillery action continues with great violence on the whole sector. There was an intermittent bombardment on the right bank of the Meuse increasing in intensity at Les Eparges.

There is no important event to report on the rest of the front.

In this same sector last night the Germans made several attempts to recover the Avocourt redoubt, in the Bois d'Avocourt, recently captured by the French. The repeated attacks were thrown back by the French fire, the Germans suffering serious losses.
Two French attacks on the western bank of the Mause both undertaken at tion with the main attack in the garina Valley smaller movements in nature of diversions were checked. French, after heavy fighting, a small derivation with the Work of the lattack with the Work. The activity of the French aerial squadrons was continued last night with Italians Capture Arms.

The Italian War Office's statement isand extending as far as Metz. The afternoon communique was a

> Between the Oise and the Aisne a strong reconnoitering party of the enemy, which was endeavoring to approach our lines in the neighborhood of Quenneireres was subjected by us to a counter attack and dispersed, leaving some dead upon the field where the encounter took place.

All Killed or Made Prisoners. On the left bank of the Meuse

a spirited preparation by their ry, the Germans endeavored artillery, the Germans endeavored several times last night to capture the redoubt in the Boisd' Avocourt. Repulsed each time by our fire the enemy suffered very serious losses. north of Hill 287 at about 3 o'clock in the morning, a surprise attack upon a German trench. The men oc-cupying this position were either killed or made prisoners.

At this same time of day French troops took possession, after a furious engagement, of a small fort of the enemy on the northeast slope of Hill 304. On the right bank of the Meuse and

On the right bank of the Meuse and in the Woevre there have been reciprocal bombardments.

During the night of May 16-17 French aviators conducted numerous bombardments along the front north of Verdun. Fifteen shells of large calibre were thrown down upon an important depot of munitions between Raucourt and Arracourt, ten kilo-meters (six miles) north of Sedan; five more on the railroad station at Sedan, where a fire broke out, and Sedan, where a fire broke out, and fifteen on a depot of munitions not far from Azannes. During the same night two French aeroplanes threw down eighty shells on the railroad station at Metz les Sablons.

SWEDEN IS PLEASED

THAT CRISIS IS PASSED

Aviators of the enemy during the night threw down several bombs in the vicinities of Luneville, Epinal and Belfort. They caused material dam-

FRENCH DRIVEN BACK. Attacks on Hill 304 Repulsed, Says

German Statement.

Belfort. They caused material damage of no great importance.

BERLIN, via London, May 18 .- The rench made three more attempts early this morning on the German positions on Hill 304, but were repulsed. The attacks were made by a fresh African division, which suffered heavily while retreating through Esnes, to the south of the hill. The German statement said:

Hand grenade engagements south-west of Laon continued. Three further attacks by the French against our positions on Hill 304 were repulsed early this morning. During a retreat through Esnes the enemy suffered very heavy losses in the surrounding open country. refers to attempts to attack made by a fresh African division, consisting of mixed white and colored French

An advance by weak enemy forces southwest of Reichackerkopf falled

GERMANS TAKE CRATER. London Admits Loss on Vimy

Ridge After Bombardment. Special Cable Despatch to THE SEN.

the Vimy ridge, southeast of Lens, the Germans succeeded yesterday in occupying a mine crater The report from British headquarters in France, issued to-night, was as fol-Yesterday there was considerable aerial work. Thirteen combats were engaged in and one hostile machine is believed to have been accounted for. It was last seen descending vertically. Yesterday afternoon, after a strong bombardment, the enemy gained a mine crater on the Vimy ridge. Last night a strong hostile patrol tried to rush one of our posts near Wieltje but was driven back. To-day, except for artillery fighting about Angres and St. Eloi, the no special incident.

Germans Attack Belgian Post. Special Cable Despatch to THE STN.

HAVRE, via Paris, May 18.—The fol-lowing official communiqué was issued by the Belgian War Office to-night: At the close of yesterday afternoon, after a violent bombardment by trenc' mortars and pieces of all calibres, a German detachment attacked one of our posts on the east bank of the Yser north of Steenstracte. The enemy was stopped by fire and our infantry fire.

SUNK BY SUBMARINE

RIOTOUS SCENES AT BOLT OF SOCIALISTS

Reichstag in Uproar at Charge of Deputy Haase That Intrigue Prolongs War.

"LONG PROVED BLUNDER"

mation of a new ultra-Radical party, was received yesterday in a private and unthe affair have been received. The story which follows tells of the session that Haase objected, saying:

"'Myself and a number of my friends see in the emergency budget a question of confidence in the Government. My attitude toward the emergency budget is

'The equality of the citizens, which correspond to the equality that prevails in the trenches, has not yet been brought about. Long ago the favorable military situation dence from the witness was: London, May 18.—In the fighting on the Vimy ridge, southeast of Lens, the termans succeeded yesterday in occurring a mine crater.

ago the favorable military situation dence from the witness was:

"It seems an extraordinary thing that these people should have been permitted to make a mimic attack upon Dublin Castle and that nothing whatever was soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldiers to discriminate? They saw these people should have been permitted to make a mimic attack upon Dublin Castle and that nothing whatever was soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldiers to discriminate? They saw these people should have been permitted to make a mimic attack upon Dublin Castle and that nothing whatever was soldier committed with him, will go on "It was even possible that under the soldiers to discriminate?" of all nations.

"Just as little as we will be beaten will done to prevent it.

we be able, according to the experiences Briefly summarized, this is what the gained thus far, to force our enemies former Under Secretary said was known could already have a peace which aims minutes pandemonium reigned. You do not want to hear the truth. cried Deputy Haase amid many inter-ruptions. The capitalists of all coun-tries do not dispute the fact that the war long since has proved a blunder. I should think that only jin-goes and unscrupulous persons would ship Mira has been sunk, according Lloyd's. No details are known. German Mine Sinks German War-

COPENHAGEN, May 18.—A despatch from Malmoe states that a German torpedo boat struck a German mine off Falsterbo and sank. One man was lost

BRITISH KNEW IRISH PLANS. BUT FEARED TO TAKE ACTION

Astounding Revelations by Sir Matthew Nathan, Late Under Secretary—Deferred Action for Political Reasons, He Says-American Money Sent Rebels.

Special Cable Despatch to The Sun.

London, May 18.—The governing authorities of Ireland had detailed advance information of the plans and preparation of the plans and preparation. It is all the first shot from the rebels. The same plan, he said, called for the immediate disarmament and arrest of the leaders. The first detailed story of the recent arations for the recent revolutionary The rebels' strength, endurance and split of the German Socialist party in outbreak in Ireland. Despite this knowlthe Reichstag, which resulted in the for- edge and despite the ever growing signs Arms Bearing Law Not Enforced. that the Sinn Fein plotters meant busiteceived yesterday in a private and uncersored letter to a prominent German of New York from a friend in Berlin have because they feared interference would cause bloodshed and between who witnessed the memorable session. Only vague cable despatches regarding the affinity have been received. The story

Only vague cable despatches regarding the affair have been received. The story which follows tells of the session that marked the bolting of Deputy Haase and eighteen followers.

"Oterman social democracy," writes the informant, "to-day broke into splinting the informant in the information in equally convinced that such scandars as occurred in the Reichstag to-day puts peace off to at least the same degree. "Deputy Scheidemann had declared in the name of the Social Democratic party that its vote approving the 'emergency budget' was conditional. To this Deputy Hases obstacted in the Reichstag to-day puts revolt was also known to his former superior in office, Augustine Birrell, the former Chief Secretary for Ireland, who also resigned under pressure when the rebellion was at its height.

"Deferred for Political Purposes." Asked toward the conclusion of the the Commission, why no action had been said. lay in the activities of the leaders taken by the Dublin Castle authorities of this section in procuring more arms dependent upon that toward the main budget. As I reject the latter so I must refuse my consent to the emergency reatening revolt. Sir Matthew gave this material. It was this activity, he added, that prompted the authorities to devise plans for their arrest, but their discus-their knees. There will be neither to him of the Sinn Feiners' preparations enquerors nor conquered when this war. That there were altogether 15,200 quered when this war | That there were altogether 15,2 is staggering toward | rebels. 3,000 in Dublin alone, and 12,00 is ended. Europe is staggering toward pauperization. What sense is there in a prolongation of the war?

"It must not be overlooked that we disposal; that they were openly and condisposal; that they were openly and con-stantly violating the statute requiring permits for the bearing of arms and the statute against unlawful assembly by openly and regularly drilling for "The Day," instituting sham fights and training women to take care of wounded.

> Sir Matthew also disclosed that he municipal buildings where the conferknew the rebels were counting upon German aid and already had been supplied with a certain quantity of German arms that three days before the rebellion started information had been obtained that the rebels reviewed with rebellion started information had been obtained that the rebels reckoned with a combined German attack against Great Polit

France Moves to Rebuild Towns.

Paris, May 18.—President Poincare signed a decree to-day creating a committee of Cabinet Ministers to aid in the reconstruction of towns and regions invaded or affected by the war.

Americans. Missing at Verdun, Safe Special Cable Despatch to The Syx.

"Then ensued violent quarrelling among the Social Democrats and for many infinites great uproar prevailed. Finally thouse it was also known to the authorities. Six Matthew testified, that large amounts of money were pouring in the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. Previously the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. Previously the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. Previously the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. Previously the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. Previously the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. Previously the rebels from America. During the rebels from America. Previously the rebels

Special Cable Despatch to The Sty.
PARIS, May 15.—Eugene Jacobs and J. Laurent of New York, who were missing after the recent fighting around Verdun, rejoined their regiment later.

THREE TEUTON SHIPS
CUINK DV CHIDMADINE

"A new admonition from President Kaempf cut off Haase's sentence, who after another interruption went on: "twing to this infringement of my freedom of speech I will only say that the capitalistic order of things has convicted itself, because it was not only unable to prevent the birth of the fury of war, but also—

"Tresident Kaempf again called the speech of National Volunteers and others joined the Sinn Fein movement and subsequently took up the cause of resolution to reconsider the British by force, the witness testified.*

Sir Matthew also disclosed for the first time the fact that the military service are was one of the indirect causes of the rebellion. Bitterly opposed to this act as long as Ireland had no "free Government of its own" large numbers joined the Sinn Fein movement and subsequently took up the cause of resolution to wrest such a Government from the British by force, the witness testified.

THREE TEUTON SHIPS*

"A new admonition from President Kaempf cut off Haase's sentence, who after another interruption went on: "twing to this infringement of my freedom of speech I will only say that the capitalistic order of things has comvicted itself, because it was not only unable to prevent the birth of the fury of National Volunteers and others joined the Sinn Fein movement and subsequently took up the cause of re-bellion to wrest such a Government from the British by force, the witness testified.

When John Redmond. It is by no means impossible that a sent was one of the indirect causes of the rebellion. Bitterly opposed to this act as long as Ireland had no "free down" large numbers to the capitalistic order of the war. The spirit of the first time the fact that the military service are was one of the indirect causes of the rebellion. Bitterly opposed to this are the fact Inclinent Pear Settlement.

Second Cold Impacts to The Res.

Secon

about me which made it impossible."
The witness attributed the arrest Sir Roger Casement while attempting land arms on the Irish coast to land arms on the Irish coast to the watchfulness ordered by the Dublin authorities, the coast being patrolled day and night. The rebels, he said, had counted upon the 20,000 rifles and 1,000,000 rounds of ammunition on the German auxiliary Aud, which was destroyed by her own crew after being seized by a by her own crew after being seized by

ADMITS TROOPS IN IRELAND 'SAW RED'

Gen. Maxwell Blames Rebels for Severity in Ireland. However.

SAYS SNIPERS WERE BUSY

Special Cable Despatch to Tax Sex. LONDON, May 19 .- The Dublin corre pondent of the Daily Mail, interviewed ien. Sir John Maxwell with regard to land said seemed to be concerned almost exclusively with the fighting ng street. Gen. Maxwell said:
"The casualties were very heavy durnosed bullets and a few German mortars at their back, pretending that they had were found in Dublin.

He emphasized that only a small sec- wore no uniforms and a man who was were found in Dublin.

He emphasized that only a small section of the National Volunteers had shown itself disloyal. The leaders of this section, he said, issued a manifesto this section, he said, issued a manifesto women to leave the area, but the latter to the section of the National Volunteers had should provide for women to leave the area, but the latter to the section of the National Volunteers had should provide for women to leave the area, but the latter to the National Volunteers had should provide for the National Volunteers had been there are the National Volunteers had been the N

"We deterred because we were afraid to enforce the act forbidding drilling under arms; we deterred practically for positical purposes."

The only statement on Lord Hardinge's part that indicated the commission's view, after drawing the startling evidence from the witness was:

"It seems an extraordinary thing that:
"It seems an extraordinary thing that."

There are 25,000 Irish Catholics ensured the spot. The plans was stopped short by "Possibly an unfortunate incident which we should regret may have occurred now and then. It did not persure the witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type witness by the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type.

"There are 25,000 Irish Catholics ensured as the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type."

"There are 25,000 Irish Catholics ensured as the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type."

"There are 25,000 Irish Catholics ensured as the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type."

"There are 25,000 Irish Catholics ensured as the statement that such a step were fired from a particular house type."

"It is a such particular the outbreak."

The particular has a step with the outbreak.

"It is a such particular has a step with the outbreak."

"It is a such particular has a step were fired from a particular house type."

"It is a such particular has a step with the outbreak."

"It is a such particular has a step were fired from a particular house type." ous assailants.
"It was even possible that under the lighter of this peculiar attack some of

ASQUITH QUITS IRELAND. That was the inevitable consequence. uppressed with kid glove methods, where Premier Warmly Greeted by false and were probably made in order conviction, he said, would be properly punished. Meanwhile he expressed grat-fication over the fact that the relations between the people and the soldiers are

Parts, May 18 .- In asking the Cham-

Niagara Falls And Return

Decoration Day TICKETS GOOD 6 DAYS

The Road of Anthracite

NEW TANGLE OVER DYES.

Britain Wants to Bestrict Amoun to Be Imported. WASHINGTON, May 18 .- The situation with reference to the importation of dyestuffs from Germany to the United States is still unsettled. Great Britain agreed to allow $5,000. its own testablish a free national Government in Ireland. The real danger, he said lay in the activities of the leaders of this section in procuring more arms and ammunition and storing up much material. It was this activity, he added, material. It was this activity, he added, material is activity, he added, material is activity, he added, material is of the control of the fighting, since the telegraph and telephone wires were out of order and pearly everything had to be left to the tons would represent from $15,000,000 tons.

Polk of the State Department to-day They saw quantity as 15,000 tons could be sent

MILLS & GIBB MEETING HELD

Nothholdern' Committee. The noteholders' committee of Mills &

Gibb, the dry goods importing house which went into the hands of a receiver last week, held an organization meeting Bankers Trust Company, is to be chairman of the committee. Thomas H. West, Jr., of Providence, R. L. has been added to the committee to represent Providence.

banks, which hold a large amount of the company's paper.

It was announced that a deposit agreement had been prepared which could be obtained at the Bankers Trust Company. It is estimated that the notes of the company held by bankers aggregate $2,200. indersement of its president, William T

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUS

PETROGRAD, May 18.—The official statement issued by the War Office tonight says regarding the operations of the army of the Caucasus; There were encounters between advanced guards in the direction of Diarbekt

Russians Repel Three Attacks.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SEN PETROGRAD, May 18.—The Russian War Office issued the following official tatement to-night: On the western front at Pulkarn Olyka and Nove-Alexinetz the enemy

Anything we tell you about

Saks Suits for Men at $20

is "Inside Information"

¶ Most ready-for-service suits are not made by the houses that sell them, so that the claims made for them are based on the claims we make for them are based on knowledge or "inside information." • We know the fabrics that go into them and the labor that is spent on them, because we buy the fabrics and employ the ¶ Saks $20 Suits are made by Saks, and labor ourselves. We know that this eliminates middlemen's profits and makes for higher grade fabrics as well as higher grade standards in tailoring them.

We know also that this maker-to-customer contact has enabled us to combine in Saks $20 Suits ready-for-service convenience with custom-tailored originality and initiative, and to bring 5th Avenue styles within the limited reach of the popular pocket.

> Sack Suits Pleated Suits Norfolk Suits Double-breasted Suits Stripes Plaids Checks Solids Blues Browns Grays Novelties Patch, Regular or Slash Pockets Skeleton, or Lined on the Half-Shell

Saks & Campany
Broadway at 34th Street

THREE TEUTON SHIPS

tinue. All parties with the exception of part of the Social Democrats voted against Haase's resumption of his The ex-Under Secretary was anxious

All Parties Approve Reiteration of Neutrality—Aland Incident Near Settlement.

The Kolga, Bianca and Hera, German Craft, Destroyed in Baltic.

The Kolga, Bianca and Hera, German Craft, Destroyed in Baltic.

The Kolga, Bianca and Hera, German Craft, Destroyed in Baltic.

The Settlement Hasse's resumption of his speech.

"When Hasse again attempted to assure the commission, however, that the bublin authorities, while not actually hreaking up the rebels, were long to assure the commission, however, that the bublin authorities, while not actually hreaking up the rebels, were long to assure the commission, however, that the bublin authorities, while not actually hreaking up the rebels, were long to assure the commission, however, that the bublin authorities, while not actually hreaking up the rebels, were long to assure the commission, however, that the bublin authorities, while not actually hreaking up the rebels, were relymg measures.

When it was learned that the rebels were relymg upon German aid, he said, the police and military along the coast the police and military along the rebels are full of these threaking up the rebels, were along the replied. The newspapers are full of these threaking up the rebels, were relymg upon German aid, he said, the police and military along the coast the police and military along the coast the police and military along the coast the police and military along the rebels.

by the same steamship, which took on board the Kolga survivors. The same procedure was followed by the captain of the submarine as in the case of the Kolga. He first she ed the vessel and then torpedoed her.

As a result of the British activity many German vesse' have remained in port.

The submarine which sank the Hera was British, it is said. Several British submarines are operating in the Baltic.

The steamship Kolga is of 2.086 tons, the Blanca of 1,117 tons and the Hera of 4.250 tons. All are registered at German ports.

SHIP'S LOSS COSTS $1,000,000.

BERLIN'S REGRETS TO SWISS.

Germany Promises Indemnity to be submarity to submarines and the vessel and the the captain of the mysterious second companion of Sir Roger Casement who is still at larse was drawn into the hearing when Sir Matthew Said to be Monteith. The witness replied that the latter escaped witness replied that the latter witness replied that the latter

The French Steamer Mira Sunk. LONDON, May 18 .- The French steamship.

"Was not a license required to bear arms in Ireland?" asked Lord Hardinage declaring that Ireland should provide to its own defence and hinted at an intention to establish a free national Government in Ireland. The real danger, he said, lay in the activities of the leaders said, lay in the activities of the leaders.

Would not go.

"The women's sympathies were with the remembered in connection with their allegations, were accordingly made for the important of the leaders. Now it was impossible from the head-tation of 15,000 tons, which represented to allow $6,000. its own defence and hinted at an inten- would not go.

trial early in June for high treason.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUS LONDON, May 18 .- Premier Asquith left Cork this evening for London, after a series of conferences. He conferred among others with the Lord Mayor, Bishop Cohalan and Daniel Desmond Sheehan, member of Parliament from Officials of Cork.

strive for world domination."

"Deputy Kell, Socialist, called excitedly: You are speaking without the sanction and consent of the Social Democratic party. Dishonor brings dishonesty:"

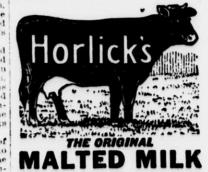

"Intrigues of Wilhelmstrasse."

"Then ensued violent quarrelling among the Social Democratis and for many thought the subject of the Irish settlement. Correspondents in Ireland admit the revolts that nothing definite can be stated with regard to that question pending the Premier's return, although they are confidence, which was given the said:

"Apart from these military preparations."

The Parliamentary correspondent of the Social Social Social Democratis and for many the Social Democratis and for many the Social Democratis and for many the Social Democratic party. Dishonor brings distributed the Social Social Social Democratic party. Dishonor brings distributed the Social S

When John Redmond, Irish National-ist leader, was questioned concerning Rich milk, malted grain extract, in powder.

For Infants, Invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body.

Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.

The Food-Drink for all Ages More nutritious than tea, coffee, etc. Substitutes cost YOU Same Price